Amusements

Della Clarke in "Introduce Me" at the Colonial Tonight.

It is not often that a playwright has succeeded in taking a man and wife as a theme and out of slight domestic infelicity woven one of the prettiest romances imaginable. This, however, is what has been accomplished by Della Clarke, author of the comedy, "Introduce Me," that will be the attraction at the Colonial tonight. Don't miss this high-class comedy. You'll enjoy it.

Fun and Music at the Colonial Tomorrow Night.

The Matinee Girl Musical Comedy Company opens a two nights' engagement at the Colonial tomorrow night, and fun and music will reign supreme. The well known comedian, Dan Russell, and a company of twenty, including the famous Rosebud Beauty Chorus, is carried. The offering tomorrow night will be the new musical surprise, "The Man, the Maid and the Money," while Saturday night "The Matinee Girl" will be presented. Seats now on sale—35, 50 and 75 cents.

Are You Nervous?

What makes you nervous? It is the weakness of your womanly constitution, which cannot stand the strain of the hard work you do. As a result, you break down, and ruin your entire nervous system. Don't keep this up! Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from purely vegetable ingredients. It acts gently on the womanly organs, and helps them to do their proper work. It relieves pain and restores health, in a natural manner, by going to the source of the trouble and building up the bodily strength.

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Grace Fortner, of Man, W. Va., took Cardui. This is what she says about it: "I was so weak and nervous, I could not bear to have anyone near me. I had fainting spells, and I lost flesh every day. The first dose of Cardui helped me. Now, I am entirely cured of the fainting spells, and I cannot say enough for Cardui, for I know it saved my life." It is the best tonic for women. Do you suffer from any of the pains peculiar to women? Take Cardui. It will help you. Ask your druggist.

WANTS INCOME TAX REVENUE

Washington, Feb. 13.—A feature of the tariff revision program of the extra session of Congress may include the raising of $100,000,000 from an income tax, including corporation tax, as part of the $309,000,000 basis of revenue from the tariff. Representative Hull of Tennessee, a Democratic member of the committee on ways and means who has been active in income tax problems, plans to introduce a bill which would provide such a source of revenue.

This would be considered by the committee in connection with contemplated early ratification of the Constitutional amendment to sanction income tax legislation. Of the necessary number of States required for ratification, only two are lacking. Mr. Hull expects these to be drawn from New Jersey, Wyoming, New Mexico or West Virginia, or from Florida.

COURT STILL FIGURING ON NEW JAIL

The Commissioners' Court was in session yesterday considering the matter of a new county jail. Although the court had no doubt as to the urgent need of a new building, still the question had not been put before the people, and as the court had no desire to move without the approval of the people, action on the matter was deferred.

They have now questioned a number of people on the subject, and the consensus of opinion seems to be that the affair is wholly in the hands of the Commissioners, the public having confidence that they will conduct the county's business, as they would their own.

Today the court is having plans which have been submitted examined by an architect, as it is their intention, should the contract for a new building be let, to prevent the possibility of any of the county's money being uselessly expended.

WANTS LAW AGAINST TIPS

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 13.—Illinois may follow Texas' example and pass a law prohibiting the giving or receiving of "tips." Representative Anthony Trimarco will within a few days introduce in the Legislature a bill making it a misdemeanor to give or accept "tips," also providing for a fine for the proprietor of any establishment who permits "tips" to be taken by employees.

"My attention was called to the question," Representative Trimarco said, "by a statement made recently that a traveling man has given away about $18,000 in 'tips' in his twenty years of travel.

"There would be no necessity for a person having to give a 'tip' for services for which the proprietor of a place is paid, and well paid, if the employees of the place were paid a living wage.

"As soon as I get my proposed bill in shape I will present it to the Legislature and I am going to do everything that I can to see that it becomes a law."

Lieutenant Governor Barratt O'Hara favors the bill.

"The network of gratuities now unfortunately gripping every community in America," Mr. O'Hara said, "constitutes one of the most serious menaces to the stability of the republic and the moral foundation of American character."
